Newsletter Term 1 Week 1

Dear Parents/Carers

Welcome back to another school year and I hope you all had a fantastic summer break and managed some quality family time. The children have settled in beautifully with their new teachers in their new classrooms. Look at the photos below to see the fantastic sugar cube castle that year 1 made! We welcome a number of new families to our school and I know they will quickly become a part of our school community.

Today in worship we held a 70 second silence to remember our Queen (10 seconds for each decade she ruled) and will be celebrating her life and reign in worship next week. The children have been given the opportunity today to reflect on what this sad news means to them. In paying tribute to Her Majesty, I want to quote the words of the poem she gave to her father when she was only 13 years of age and which he used. The poem was quoted, by her father, King George VI in his Christmas Day broadcast in 1939 - the year the country went to war for the second time. It goes like this:

"I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year,
"Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown."
And he replied;
"Go out into the darkness, put your hand into the hand of God.
"That shall be, to you, better than light and safer than a known way."

Our value for this term is creativity and our big question is:

Where does the sky start?

Best wishes and have a lovely weekend
